2010 FIVB MEN'S VOLLEYBALL WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

ITALY 25TH SEPTEMBER - 10TH OCTOBER 2010

OFFICIAL BULLETIN N. 1

Message from FIVB Control Committee President Mr. Theofanis Tsiokris

After many months of preparation we have now arrived at the moment we have all been waiting for, the start of the 2010 Men's World Championship.

On behalf of the FIVB President Mr. Jizhong Wei I would like to offer my congratulations to the Italian Volleyball Federation and the Organizing Committee for the diligence and professionalism in making sure this event will be a great success.

Having organized the World Championship over 10 cities for the first time in FIVB history, the task has not been easy, but we are satisfied with all the preparations and now we can now look forward to 16 days of great Volleyball to see who receives the ultimate reward and is finally crowned the men's world champion for 2010.

I wish good luck to all teams and remind everyone to participate remembering the FIVB principles of fair play and respect as we enjoy the journey to Rome on October 10.

Men's World Championship wait nearly over

Milan, Italy, September 23, 2010 – The 17th edition of the FIVB Men's World Championship is less than two days away with all 24 teams having arrived in Italy on Thursday with Volleyball's premier tournament getting underway on Saturday at 5pm.

A total of 78 matches will be played across 10 cities in Italy from September 25 through to October 10 with two-time defending champions Brazil coming into the tournament as hot favourites in the middle of an unbeaten run of 13 matches in FIVB tournaments which includes of a record ninth FIVB World League title in July. Putting aside two World Championship warm-up defeats to Germany, the world No. 1 has been almost untouchable in recent years having won eight of the past 10 World Leagues, two Grand Champions Cups, two World Cups plus a 2004 Olympic Games gold medal and the 2002 and 2006 World Championship titles.

Looking to push them close will be world No. 2, six time world champions and the most successful country in men's Volleyball Russia, who finished as runner's up to Brazil in the 2010 World League final and world No. 3 USA, who are the Olympic champions having beaten Brazil to the Beijing title in 2008.

Round one of the 2010 Men's World Championship is split into six pools of four teams with the top three sides advancing into the second round.

Pool A in Milan includes hosts Italy, Japan, Egypt and Iran with Egypt and Iran opening proceedings in a repeat of the 2009 Grand Champions Cup clash which saw Iran win the five sets while Italy will be looking to maintain their dominance over Japan having won 21 of their 28 encounters to date.

Pool B in Verona offers a mouth-watering clash with Brazil and the young and dynamic Cuba in the same group. Brazil play Tunisia in the opening game having never lost to their African opponents in seven encounters while Cuba take on Spain in the late match.

Pool C in Modena sees Russia play world No. 21 Cameroon for only the second time with Russia winning their only encounter at the 1989 World Cup in straight sets. Australia and Puerto Rico will also play for only the second time with Australia having won their first encounter at the 2007 World Cup in four sets.

Pool D in Reggio Calabria sees an all-South American affair start proceedings with Venezuela taking on Argentina followed by the 1986 world champions USA playing their neighbours Mexico having won two of their three previous encounters.

Pool E in Turin opens with world No. 12 France playing world No. 36 the Czech Republic followed by 2006 World Championship bronze medalists Bulgaria up against China in a fascinating group while Pool F in Trieste sees 2006 World Championship silver medalists Poland take on Canada with Germany playing World League bronze medalists Serbia in another tough pool.
